Kezia Newlands
Experiences of Women Working in Transportation

Women Moving the City – Scania West Africa

WMC
Products and services

Long-haulage

Construction

Distribution

Special-purpose

City/Surburban

Intercity/Coach

Engines

Network and services

Used vehicles
SUSTAINABILITY AT SCANIA

Sustainable transport
Doing the right things
- Energy efficiency
- Alternative fuels and electrification
- Smart and safe transport

Partnership driven leadership

Responsible business
Doing things right
- Resource and energy efficient operations
- Diversity and inclusion
- Health and safety
- Human and labour rights
- Business ethics
- Community engagement

Sustainability at Scania
THE WMC PROCESS

Ad was placed, over 400 applicants out of which 73 were selected

• Tailor-made curriculum with DVLA

• Women were trained from no experience to F license

#WomenInTransport
#WomenInTransport

2019 WOMEN and TRANSPORT AFRICA CONFERENCE

Driver training for the women

WOMEN and TRANSPORT AFRICA

CONFERENCE

Session title
The selected women for the initiative
Women Moving Trucks

#WomenInTransport
Kezia Newlands

Experiences of Women Working in Transportation

“To keep the women in the profession, we need to offer them competitive incentives for employment such as health insurance, pension, equal pay.”